61-32-3. Definitions. (Repealed effective July 1, 2018.)

As used in the Funeral Services Act:

I. "direct disposition" means only the disposition of a dead human body as quickly as possible, without a direct disposer performing or arranging a funeral, graveside service, committal service or memorial service, whether public or private, and without embalming of the body unless embalming is required by the place of disposition;
